#Hellomynameis - Meet the Team Photoboards

Reassure patients and visitors with a professional appearance

Many hospital wards/clinics have a pinboard near the entrance or reception desk displaying photographs of the team providing care in that area.

Too often these collections of photographs are of varying size and quality, misaligned and pinned beneath 'homemade' headers that are inconsistent in design and do not comply with Trust branding.

Our 'Meet the Team' displays use professional photograph editing and layout practices to provide the same information in a more standardised way, providing consistency in appearance, reinforced Trust branding/colours and a greater benefit to the patient experience.

Also available with #Hellomynameis branding.

- Robust and fire retardant lockable covered housing.
